THE CLASS OF JUNE, 1931

The Class History

By BELLA GONET

GATHER 'round, my friends, and lend me your eyes and ears. Let us look through the precious scrap book of the class of June, 1931, of New Bedford High School, whose every page holds a store of fond memories.

It lies open now before us at the very last page, having been filled to capacity with the notes of a very eventful and happy four years.

This leaf is bustling with the excitement of commencement. Facing this is a picture of our 1931 June graduates, each with a smile on his face, though sorrow is in his heart at leaving the dear Alma Mater.

Turning back the page, our notes give us a mental picture of the banquet hall at the New Bedford Hotel, where we received our class books, gifts, and heard our prophecies.

Right along with this, only three days previous, was the Senior Prom, the most anticipated affair of any graduating class. Our Prom was brilliant with the varicolored flowing gowns of the girl graduates.

Well, let us continue. We have so many more pictures and notes to see.

Why, here's a picture of our Class Day, held on June 12. A fine program was enjoyed by the whole assembly.

Oh! what a colorful affair this was. I remember this dance distinctly. I wonder if anyone of you can. The gymnasium in this picture is decorated with spring flowers and colorful ribbons; there are couples waltzing on the large, slippery floor. Don't you remember? This was the May Dance, our class dance, given on May the first. What a wonderful success that turned out to be.

Here is a picture of the 7's and 8's senior show. This was a fine production and was enjoyed by all. It was given on December 5, 1930, in our auditorium. The present graduating class, at that time being the 7's, did, with all their might and main, the best they could to make this show go over big.

As 7's, it was our turn to invite those entering high school for the first time to a Freshman's Reception. How shy the little Freshies were, then—but now, there's not a wallflower amongst them. Here is a picture of the committee in charge of the Reception. They are Simone Turgeon, Everett Sanderson, James Gurll, John Duff, Irving Cohen, Ruth Chase and Blanche E. Biron.

On this page, we have all the pictures of the Student Council Board of our class. Here's the first one picturing the officers representing us as 1's and 2's: President, Henry Sherman; Vice-President, Jean Touchette; Secretary, Jean Pratt; and Treasurer, Elizabeth Wood. When we were 3's and 4's, we elected the following class officers: President, Everett Sanderson; Vice-President, Earl Smith; Secretary, Blanche E. Biron; and Treasurer, Lavon Ames. At our next election of officers, at the beginning of our fifth term, we chose James Gurll, President; Hugh Beach, Vice-President; Blanche E. Biron, Secretary; and Everett Sanderson, Treasurer. The class officers representing us for our first part of the senior year, that is, as 7's, were: James Gurll, President; Ruth Chase, Vice-President; Blanche E. Biron, Secretary; and Everett Sanderson, Treasurer. But on becoming 8's, we had another election of president and vice-president, as these offices were vacant. The officers for the last term were: President, John Duff, 3rd; Vice-President, Mitchell Sieminski; Secretary, Blanche E. Biron; and Treasurer, Everett Sanderson. The Student Council Convention of the Massachusetts Secondary Schools was held on February 21, 1931, at Everett High School. Here is a picture of all those who attended this convention on said date, among whom is our own James Gurll who has served as president of the State Council for the past year.

And here's another happy memory,—this note of our 7's Dance—the first real Sports Dance sponsored by any class.

And look what's here—football! These are the pictures of the football teams of the last four years. You notice our boys are represented in every group—among them you recognize: James Gurll, Frank Small, Mervin Leen, Edwin Cordin, Bronislaw Siwik, and Mitchell Sieminski, our vice-president. He has made a fine record for himself as a football player; and Coach Murphy is certainly sorry to be losing these valuable players.

These basketball teams, both girls' and boys', which are pictured here, have brought considerable credit to the school. Among them we see some of our own class: Simone Turgeon, Elna Nelson, Louise Stiles, and Edna Delaney on the girls' teams. On the boy's teams we can claim here: Mervin Leen. Here we see our Babe Ruths and Bobby Joneses. Our boys who have played many good matches on the golf courses, representing the New Bedford High Golf Team and who are pictured on this page, are: James Gurll, William Sullivan, and John Duff, 3rd. Our Babes are Gardner Drew, Earl Taylor, William Margeson, and Edmund Otis, whose pictures we see here.

The R. O. T. C. unit is losing a good many of its honored members. On this page, we have a picture of all the graduating R. O. T. C. members. The officers are: Major Richard Pratt Sylvia, Captain Edmund Perry, First Lieutenant John Duff 3rd, First Lieutenant Russell Gifford, First Lieutenant Bronislaw Siwik, Second Lieutenant Alvar Sundin, and Second Lieutenant Charles Marchal. The sponsors are: Honorary Captain and Battalion Sponsor Blanche E. Biron, and Honorary First Lieutenant and Company Sponsor Ethel Birtwistle.

This is a picture of a cast of the Dramatic Club. In it we recognize several of our own class mates: Jeanette Adelsohn, Frank Small, Ruth Chase, Ruth Gidley, Ethel Birtwistle, Everett Sanderson, Edward Howarth, Grace Murphy, Edmund Perry, Gardner Drew, Margaret Howes, Jennie Soboski, Edna Delaney, Marjorie Simas, and Richard Pratt Sylvia.

On this page, we have a few pictures of both the debating Society and Honor Society. Among the former, we see Jeanette Adelsohn, and Louis Pildis, the latter being president of this society in 1930, when he was a 7. Both have long and faithfully represented the Alpha Debating Society. Those in the Honor Society pictures, whom we see and who are graduating, are: Mitchell Sieminski, President; Blanche E. Biron, Vice-President; John Duff; Virginia Kilburn; Elizabeth Wood, Bronislaw Siwik, Rubin Stupnitsky, Amanda Macy, Marcus Mazel, Gordon Scowcroft, Elizabeth Taber, Mary Parendelis, Margaret Howes, and Yvonne Gardner and several others.

Then here are many miscellaneous pictures of the many clubs, such as: the French Club, the various Glee Clubs, and Special Choruses to which a number of our class mates have belonged. And here is also a picture of the band in uniform and the orchestra, which will be minus many good musicians after this June graduation, I'm sure.

And here is a picture of the graduates of the Normandin and Roosevelt Junior High Schools. The graduates, on entering high school, entered into their second year of higher education. These seniors from the Junior High Schools and the freshmen at the Senior High School fused together into one common class as 3's.

So this marks the end of our reminiscing and looking back, in Chinese fashion, by the use of a handy little scrap book, from our brilliant present to the dim and ever-fading past.

Introducing the most popular boy in the class, John the third. He has the great honor of being president of the finest class ever to leave N.B.H.S. Besides holding this office, he has been very active in other school activities. It is hard to determine which activity he gets the most enjoyment from. We wonder if it is from R. O. T. C? With all his activities he has not neglected his studies and has made the Honor Society. Well, John, luck be with you at M. I. T.

Giftory of the Class of June, 1931

Normal Course

by ELIZABETH T. PECK

PHYLLIS BROMLEY

Lantern

When you go a-walking
In the country at night,
This little lantern
May provide you with light.

MARGARET CAYTON

Slick-um

When you need a jar of slick-um
And you haven't got a cent;
When your hair is standing upright
Here's a jar that Benny sent.

FRANK CLEVELAND

Vanishing Cream

Frank has such an awful time
Making his freckles disappear,
Altho' this cream costs only a dime,
He can use it without fear.

DORIS COHEN

Lipstick

Doris is always busy,
Making a cupid's bow,
This new brand of lipstick
Will keep her from running low.

MARY COSTA

Chemistry Set

Your test tubes are all broken,
And some other things, I bet.
You better start all over
With this new chemistry set.

JOSEPHINE DABROWSKA

Adhesive Tape

To Josephine we give this tape,
A bandage for your hand 'twill make.
Use it when you have a fall
When playing a game of basketball.

THALIA FELTON

Horn

Thalia is a very quiet girl.
Altho' she doesn't play with toys,
We're going to make her take this horn
So she can make some noise.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

ROSE GLYNN

Kitten

This little kitten for Rosie,
To keep her company.
We hope she won't be frightened,
He's as quiet as can be.

LOUVA GODDU

Teapot

Louva is so quiet,
An old maid she may be.
I'm sure, in the long evenings
She'll want to make some tea.

MYRTLE HEYLIGER

Book on Love

To you we give this little book,
In which we hope you'll often look,
Be sure that you take heed
For this is something you will need.

LILYAN KIVOWITZ

Flat Iron

To our Paris model Lilyan,
Who always looks so prim,
We give this little flat iron,
That she may keep her plaits pressed in.

JOHN KOZIOL

Paint Brushes

These brushes we give to John,
And we are very sure,
With palet, canvas and easel,
He can paint a miniature.

MARY McINTYRE

Powder

A nice little box of powder
To cover your furious blushing,
When with some young man you're conversing
And the blood to your face is rushing.

EDMUND MATTOS

Pen

To Edmund we give this pen,
That poems may be his goal.
He should start writing at once,
For his verses stir the soul.

ELNA NELSON

Megaphone

When in athletics you specialize,
We hope that this megaphone
Will be in the best of tone,
For your daily exercise.

ESTHER PAINE

Yeast Cake

Oh, pretty little Esther,
Pray eat of this yeast cake.
You may think me a jester,
But a tall girl it will make.

CLASS OF JUNE, NINETEEN THIRTY-ONE

ALMY PHILLIPS

Farmer

Almy is so busy
Riding around in her Hup,
We give her a little farmer
To hoe her garden up.

DOROTHY ROSE

Chinese Doll

The best thing we can find for you,
As you go to church so much,
Is this little Chinese heathen,
Because you can save such.

MARJORIE SIMAS

Sheet Music

When you are low in spirit,
And all the world seems wrong,
Please don't sit and worry,
Just sing yourself this song.

LOUISE STILES

Comb

Louise, your hair is always wavy.
A comb you need, I know,
To have your waves set prettily,
And keep them in a row.

ELSIE SYLVIA

Radio

Station E. F. S., you know the rest,
It's Elsie on the air,
She'll make a good announcer
On the Radio, anywhere.

THELMA SYLVIA

Curling Iron

Of what you may be thinking,
Only you and Heaven know.
But here's a little gadget,
To keep your waves just so.

SIMONE TURGEON

Automobile

When you get stuck out in the mud,
Or your car just falls apart,
Pull this one from your pocket,
And see how easy it will start.

VIVIAN WEST

Cook Book

Oh, Vivian, here is a cook book.
Now, read it through and through,
You must not overlook the fact,
That good cooks are very few.

ELIZABETH WHITE

Man

Oh Liz, here's a little partner
For you when you wish to dance.
So, when you hear some music,
Just step right out and prance.

College Classical Course

by RUTH GIDLEY

ETHEL BIRTWISTLE

Drum

We bought for Ethel a little drum
You know she was called "the little noise".
Perhaps now she'll giggle less,
Drum more and acquire a little poise.

LILLIAN BOSSE

Comb

And now a comb for Lillian
To comb her pretty black hair,
For wherever she goes hereafter
She will find a comb useful there.

DOMINICO CARDULLO

Bag

Ever since we can remember
Dominico has carried his books,
In a bag that now needs replacing
We can tell that by its looks.

DOROTHY DEAN

Make-up

We give this make-up to Dot
So that on her face she may make a blot,
When on the stage she does appear
To pursue her actresses career.

DAVID DRATCH

Doll

In High School David was bashful,
He never spoke to a girl,
So we will give him this dolly
To accompany him in life's dizzy whirl.

ELSIE GARRITY

White Horse

There is an old adage about a red head
And a white horse going together,
So we give Elsie a horse of her own
To go with her in all kinds of weather.

BELLA GONET

Baby Doll

Bella, We give you this doll
Please do not let it fall,
For like you it has a baby face
And to mar it would be a disgrace.

MARGARET HOWES

A Half A Year

The judge gives many a man a year
But we give Margaret a half.
You see she really has earned it
And given us all the laugh.

VIRGINIA KILBURN

Glasses

Virginia is such a wise owl
It really makes us howl,
So we give her a pair of glasses
In college we hope she passes.

YSOLA LANTHIER

Handkerchief

We give Ysola our good wishes
And a little handkerchief, too,
We surely wish her lots of luck
Whatever she may do.

AMANDA MACY

Dish Mop

Amanda is so stately
And so very dignified,
We give her this humble dish mop
We hope it won't hurt her pride.

SAM MANELIS

Can of Paint

Sammy's Ford is getting shabby
It's enough to try a saint,
Maybe he won't like the color
But anyway here's a can of paint.

WILLIAM MARGESON

Song

Here's a song for Billy to sing
It should be a duet I think,
In the Senior Show he made such a hit
With his smile and naughty wink.

MARCUS MAZEL

Dictionary

Marcus, here's a dictionary
Be sure you're right—then go ahead,
For if you're sure you're in the right
Then you'll lead and never be led.

MARY McDEVITT

Dime

Mary, poor girl, do take this dime
And keep it for your lunch,
And then maybe at recess sometime
You won't have to borrow, I have a hunch.

ELIZABETH NORLANDER

Little Man

For Ibbie a cute little man we've found
We know that she will like him,
Try to keep him always around
And call him your mascot "Jim".

ROSE O'BRIEN

Compact

A cute little compact we have for Rose
So she won't have to borrow,
Whenever she wants to powder her nose
But she'll probably lose it tomorrow.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

MARY PARANDELIS

Chewing Gum

Mary, you are so dignified
We wish you would break some rule,
So we give you this gum
Please chew it while in school.

WALTHAM PORTNOY

Dotted Neck-Tie

A cute little neck-tie for Walt
It's up to the minute with dots,
And we hope whenever he wears it
He will think of High School lots.

AILEEN SANDERS

Map

Here's a cunning pocket map
For our class mate Aileen Sanders,
We hope it will be a help to her
In life, where 're she wanders.

MARY SHERMAN

Yeast Cake

To Mary Sherman we give this yeast
Hoping it will make her grow.
She's such a little thing
The idea's good you know.

ROXANNE SHERMAN

Hairpins

"Roxanne, your hair is falling down".
We hear this every day,
So we give you these hairpins
Maybe they'll help some day.

BRONISLAW SIWIK

Tin Soldier

Siwik has trained many a rookie
And knows how a soldier should look,
So we give him this little tin soldier
To keep in some cozy nook.

JENNIE SOBOSKI

Dancing Doll

Here's a little dancing doll
For Jennie, with good wishes,
He'll make a first class partner
But won't help with the dishes.

REUBEN STUPNITSKY

Glasses

Reuben is a studious lad
And never looks at lassies,
So maybe it might make him happy
To have this pair of glasses.

MARY SULLIVAN

Book Straps

Mary Sullivan dropped so many books
All through her High School days,
That we thought a good stout strap
Might help her mend her ways.

RICHARD PRATT SYLVIA

Tin Sword

A sword for the Major
Dick is his name,
He will go down in history
PLASTERED with fame.

ELIZABETH TABER

Fishing Line

Betty Taber's on the honor roll
We think that is so fine,
We give her this fishing tackle
To help her "string a line".

EARL TAYLOR

Peroxide

A bottle of peroxide for Earl
To bleach his nice red hair,
We are sure that if he did this
It would give him a high-brow air.

JACOB WINETSKY

Eye-Lash Curler

Jacob has such lovely lashes
We wonder if they're real,
If he uses this eye-lash curler
Some girl's heart he'll steal.

ELIZABETH WOOD

Horn

This horn is for Elizabeth Wood
We think it ought to make a hit,
For all through school she's been so good
Some noise from her won't hurt a bit.

WANDA ZAJAC

Train

"Where is the underground railway"?
Wanda whispered in history one day,
So we give this little choo-choo
Perhaps it might help her some day.

STANLEY ZIEMBIK

Mirror

A mirror for Stanley to carry
As on through life he rushes,
Always carry it with you
And try to count those blushes.

Scientific Course

by FRANK SMALL

FERN BAILEY

Little Package

We wished to give you something
As useful as could be,
Just untie this minute package
And see what you can see.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

FRANCES BLECHA

Gum

If your nerves with love are shattered
Just chew upon this gum,
An asset it will be to you
A tonic 'twill become.

EDWIN CARDIN

Carfare

If ever you are far from home
And wish to speedily get back,
This carfare'll help you out a lot
If you but get on the right track.

RICHARD CARRERA

Sword

To one so distinguished
In the R. O. T. C.,
What can be more appropriate
Than this little sword, you see.

HERBERT CATLOW

Soap

If you ever have cares and worries
Resting on your back some day,
Take this little bar of soap
And wash them all away.

ERNEST DELCOURT

Potato

Ernest wants a potato
He must put it in a bag,
Take good care, Ernest
And do not let it sag.

GARDNER DREW

Whistle

What I got for Gardy
Cost me only one cent,
It's just a little whistle
But I know he'll be content.

JOHN DUFF

Rompers

Rompers for our president?
That does sound rather wild!
But though he acts so dignified
He's really just a child.

CARLTON FERNS

Bed

You often seem so tired
I thought you'd like a bed,
When you get over tired
Here's a chance to rest your head.

ALBERT FURNANS

Toothpick

You're very, very lanky and tall
And also very lean,
You're the nearest to this toothpick
That I have ever seen.

RUSSELL GIFFORD

Girl Doll

Sir Russell Gifford (so they say)
Will not give way to Cupid's dart,
Well here's a charming lady fair
Who's sure to melt his heart.

BENJAMIN GORDON

Harmonica

Here is a little instrument
On which you must learn to play,
Please take it home with you
And practice every day.

DONALD GRAY

Sponge

If you are ever a chemist
This sponge you'll surely need,
For spilling acids is your weakness
And it should be remedied.

LEWIS GREGSON

Test Tube

When you are in college
And the test tubes you do break,
Here is another
To have for emergency's sake.

JAMES GURLL

Magnet

Although you're very handsome
And you have charms galore,
We give to you this magnet
To charm the ladies more.

EDWARD HOWARTH

Monkey Wrench

To our electrical engineer
A monkey wrench we give,
Be sure and do not work too hard
Or you not long will live.

WILLIAM HOWLAND

Candy Life-Savers

When you go in swimming
And the raft is never near,
Swim and get your exercise
Here's a life-saver, never fear.

ANZELM KURGAN

Joke Book

In here you'll find some funny jokes
I hope they will not bore,
If they do, just put them in the stove
And let the fire roar.

JAMES LEARY

Dice

Just take these little ivory bones
And roll them without fear,
To make a living for yourself
And clothes for "baby" dear.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

MERVIN LEEN

Basketball

A basketball star is Mervin Leen
Who has acquired much fame,
By tossing a ball just like this
Through an iron frame.

MILTON LEVY

Football

Milton needs a football
To keep him satisfied,
He is a great tackle
And Mr. Murphy's pride.

DAVID McVEY

Fertilizer

In order to become a man
And grow both tall and strong,
Just use a little fertilizer
To help the job along.

NORMAN MAHEU

Elephant

An elephant for luck
To carry on your vest,
It gives you lots of pluck
And everything that's best.

CHARLES MARCHAL

Pistol

When Charlie is a General
He'll be a regular soldier,
Let this souvenir remind you
Of when you wore a striped shoulder.

THOMAS MOSES

Dog

The rose is red
The violet blue,
And so I give
This dog to you.

EDWARD MURPHY

Magazine

Sometime when you're feeling blue
And don't know how to spend the day,
Just read this little magazine
'Twill drive all cares away.

EDMUND OTIS

Brilliantine

You're very nice and pretty
And your hair is never mussed,
So take this Brilliantine
And keep it free from rust.

JOHN PAQUIN

Date Book

Whenever you're lonesome and blue
And want something to do
Just open this book at most any page
Because its full of names of girls you know.

EDMUND PERRY

Cook Book

When Grace and Ed are married
In their little home,
Wifie can make use of this
For cooking all her own.

LOUIS PILDIS

Dumbell

Just swirl this little dumbell
And if it hits your head,
It won't hurt you very much
For both are made of lead.

MILTON REX

Gum

You're a very quiet fellow
And different from the other boys,
So take this little gum and show us
That you can make some noise.

FRED RUSEK

Doll

We've noticed that you have no girl
And we are very sorry for you,
But if you take this little one
She always will be true.

KENNETH RUSSELL

Perfume

Girls have many tastes you know
But perfume is liked by all, I've found
So if you put this sweet stuff on
I am sure they will all flock around.

EVERETT SANDERSON

Tennis Racquet

To Sanderson, our tennis champ
A racquet we present,
Please discard your old one now
'Cause this for luck was meant.

GERRETT SCHULER

Ford

"Gerry" had a Ford
The Ford she wouldn't go
Here's another "Lizzie"
You'll always have to tow.

GORDON SCOWCROFT

Note Book

When you have studied
All you need to know,
Here's a little note-book
To hold the overflow.

ALBERT SHILL

Candy Bar

Here's a bar of candy
Eat one every day,
So grow up like Jack Frasier
'Twill help you on the way.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

ALBERT SHUSTER

Boat

As studies now are over
Here is a little boat,
You surely will discover
That you can make it float.

MITCHELL SIEMINSKI

Football

To you our football champ
This little gift we bring,
To aid you on the gridiron
A forward pass to sling.

EDWARD SIMPSON

Chevrons

To Ed we give his sarg's chevrons
We hate to see him go,
He made a splendid officer
But as a sargent, (oh)?

HERBERT SMITH

Drum

When you feel discouraged
And the girls all treat you bum,
Just step upon the platform
And beat this little drum.

GEORGE SPILIOTIS

Bank

To aid you with your money
Whatever is your lot,
This little bank
The class for you has bought.

EARLE SPOONER

Billfold

To Earle I give this billfold
A racketeer he'll be,
If this holds only one hundred dollars
Please give the rest to me.

WILLIAM SULLIVAN

Golf Ball

To Bill we give this golf ball
To keep him in the sun,
Look out there fellow
You'll make a hole in one.

ALVAR SUNDIN

Horse-Shoe

Next time a-fishing you do go
And you don't catch any fish,
Pull out this gift we're giving you
And then just simply wish.

Commercial Course

by EDNA DELANEY

JEANETTE ADELSON

Diary

Jeannette always has something to tell Nettie
About the night before
So here is a little book
Your secrets in which to store.

ADA ALBIN

Man

Ada is looking for something
I think it's a man
May this be a substitute
We're doing the best we can.

EILEEN ALLISON

Copy Test

Eileen is a champion typist
49 or 50 is her speed
If she practices on this copy test
All the other champions she will lead.

SARAH ALVES

Egg Beater

When Sarah gets married
I know she'll be a good cook
This egg beater will help her out
With the recipes in the book.

MARY ANDRE

Compact

Here's a compact for Mary
And with me you'll all agree
That one comes in handy
No matter where you chance to be.

KULA ANNIS

Dime

I've thought and thought of what to give you
I've racked my brain through and through,
Until I've wasted so much time
That I finally thought I'd give you a dime.

ROSE BERCHE

Horn

Rose is a quiet girl
Who never makes a sound.
So here's a horn that she can blow
To let us know that she's around.

BLANCHE BIRON

Date Book

This date book will come in handy
To Blanche, for you all know,
She must be very busy
As she's always on the go.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

ADRIENNE BLANCHETTE

Broom

When hubby smokes at home
He'll get the ashes all over the floor,
So Adrienne will need this broom
To keep clean every room.

ESTELLE BUCKLEY

Book of Dreams

Here is a dream book for Estelle
We know that she'll like it too,
For she is always day-dreaming
We hope they all come true.

CHARLES CHACE

Ladder

Charlie Chace the comedian
Is soon to retire,
So here's a ladder for our Charlie
To aid him to climb higher.

GEORGE CHADWICK

Palmolive Soap

George has such a lovely complexion
One that many people admire,
So I'm giving him this bar of soap
To keep it as they desire.

ARNOLD COHEN

Pills

Arnold is very noisy
On that we'll all agree,
This bottle of pills
Should keep him quiet in company.

MARIA COSTA

Yeast Cake

Maria is a very tiny girl
But one who is very wise,
So to her I give this yeast cake
To help her to rise.

LOUIS CRAPO

Can of Oil

Louis certainly has the gift of gab
But a certain girl seems to like it,
And if he ever gets stuck
With this oil she can grease him up.

RUSSELL CRAWFORD

Crayons

Russell is so good at maps
This box of crayons we bought for him,
So when he has some spare time
He can get at them with a vim.

EDWARD DARGIS

Harmonica

You thought that I'd give you a fiddle
Or maybe a French horn,
But you see I fooled you
Here's something else to try your talents on.

ROGER D'AVIGNON

Bottle of Cherries

Roger struts around in a certain store
So peppy and very business like,
That we're sure in future years
He will be it's shining light.

JANE DAVIDSON

Lumps of Sugar

I wanted to give you something nice
Something that was real sweet,
The only thing I could think of was sugar
That is sweet and also good to eat.

VIOLET DEXTRAZE

Cook Book

The nearest way to a man's heart, they say
Is through his stomach,
So carefully read this little book
And then you'll know how to cook.

LILLIAN DOBECK

Notebook

Lillian's favorite subject
We all know is short-hand,
To such an extent
That she believes in using long-hand.

WALTER DREHER

Doll

Here's a doll for Walter
Who is so bashful with the girls,
I know he's going to like it
Because it has such pretty curls.

ANNA DUFRESNE

Red Ribbon

Anna is so bashful
And so very proud,
If she wears this red ribbon
It will make her very loud.

RUTH EASTON

Sheet of Music

Ruth is going to be famous
And to New York she will go,
She will play this sheet of music
For the bald-heads in the front row.

ABRAHAM FELD

Bottle of Iodine

Here's a small article for Abraham
For you see,
Good things come in small packages
Wonder if he'll agree?

MARGARET FERGUSON

Joke Book

Margaret is so very thin
Everyone in the class knows that
If she reads this joke book
She will laugh and grow fat.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

JANET FITCH

Eraser

When Janet is a stenographer
This eraser she will probably need,
Let's hope she won't make too many mistakes
When she is trying to show her speed.

GUY FREDERICK

Dictionary

Guy needs a dictionary
Many words to define,
Cause with his business letters
He has an awful time.

YVONNE GARDNER

Detective Story

Yvonne is so very quiet
A gift for her is hard to find,
This detective story
Will help her to pass some time.

MAURICE GOLDBERG

Book and Pencil

I looked at the list of accountants this fall
And found Maurice to be the best of them all,
This book and pencil he surely will need
When he goes out to show the world his speed.

IRENE GOLDTHORPE

Curling Irons

Irene is a very nice girl
But her hair is straight, straight, straight,
If she uses these irons to make little curls
She will look real cute on every date.

MARY GONSALVES

History Book

Mary loves history
As we all know,
So here's a little book for her
To take wherever she should go.

ETHEL GORDON

Cook Book

This little book
Should come in handy,
To make Ethel
A cook that's dandy.

IMELDA GOULET

Automobile

Imelda is getting very thin
She needs to put on some weight,
So we're giving her this car
In hopes that she will gain about 28.

HELEN GRANT

Pencil

We thought the most appropriate thing
For Helen was a pencil,
For she does so much checking at Cherry's
Her's surely must get dull some.

MARY HARDEN

Puzzle

Whatever Mary talks about
To the boy from Holy Family,
Has always been a puzzle to us
But he must think its dandy.

ELIZABETH HARPIN

Car

Elizabeth lives in Acushnet
Which is a long way from school,
But with the aid of this car
The distance will not seem so far.

PATRICIA JAMES

Curling Irons

Patricia has trouble with her hair
It will not stay in curl,
If she will often use this gift
It will make her a pretty girl.

FRANCES JEGLINSKI

Potato Peeler

Frances is going to be a cook
This potato peeler she will need,
When she is in a hurry
It sure will give her speed.

JOHN JOHN

Pen

John doesn't agree with past historians
He thinks their dope is all wrong,
So pretty soon you'll see a book
Written by our own John.

FLORENCE KEY

Can Opener

When Florence gets married
A modern housekeeper she will be,
This can opener will help her
To solve the dinner mystery.

JOSEPH KOSINSKI

Baseball

Baseball is Joseph's hobby
The big league he will make,
If he'll practice with this ball
Some day he'll take the cake.

GRAYCE LAMOND

Book

Grayce stays at home every night
While Eddie is at school,
So here is a book
To help her keep the golden rule.

KATHLEEN LAWLESS

Duster

A certain young man in Fairhaven
Has just bought a brand new car,
So here's a duster for Kathleen
To keep it as bright and shiny as a star.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

DOROTHY LAWTON

Flower

Dorothy is so quiet and demure
She likes pretty things I'm sure,
This little imitation flower
Will help her to always remember this hour.

ROWENA LEEN

Powder Puff

All girls like powder puffs
I'm sure Rowena does too,
So that's what gave me the idea
To get this one for you.

CECILE LEMAIRE

Box of Rouge

When the bloom of youth has faded away
For rosy cheeks you'll have to pay,
This gift we give at this great time
So that you'll be able to save a dime.

FRED LERNER

Handkerchief

Fred's hanky must be quite the thing
For Mary wants it badly,
We hope he'll like this one as well
So he can give her the other, gladly.

THEODORE LINDGREN

Glue

Ted and Jeanette are always quarrelling
Which makes them both feel blue,
So to patch up their little differences
I give Ted this bottle of glue.

RUBY LUSCOMB

Bow and Arrow

Ruby belongs to the Archery Club
A perfect shot she is getting to be,
So take this little bow and arrow
And sometimes think of your class and me.

ADOLPH MACHADO

Fairy Soap

We know that fairy soap does wonders
And so we feel
That in giving this to Adolph
He will soon find his ideal.

HENRY MARTINS

Road Map

Henry seems like a lonesome lover
But nobody knows what he's trying to discover,
This little road map ought to be handy
To help him find his little dandy.

LUCY PIGNONE

Joke Book

Telling jokes is Lucy's pastime
Where she gets them we don't know,
But if she should ever run short
This book will help her a lot.

STEFANIE PLAZA

Megaphone

Stephanie always speaks in a whisper
No one knows that she's about,
We give to her this megaphone
So that she will learn how to shout.

ELIZABETH RAULINS

Bar of Candy

Everyone likes candy
Elizabeth is no exception to the rule,
This bar of candy will therefore
Help her to forget that she is leaving school.

MILDRED REED

Apron

Mildred is soon to be married
And will have to wash the dishes,
So to her I give this apron
With the classes very best wishes.

FRANCES REICH

Pen

Frances' writing does not excel
So my advice to her is this,
Try this pen and who can tell
What wonders may exist.

BERT ST. GERMAIN

Trombone

I give this trombone
To Bert St. Germain,
In hopes that some day
He'll win great fame.

MARY SCULLY

Mouse Trap

Mary is out to get someone
Who is it? — Oh, I'm keeping that in store,
This mouse trap ought to aid her
To catch the one she is looking for.

NETTIE SHIEF

Hair Pins

With all the care Nettie takes of her hair
It still insists on falling,
This little package of pins, you see
Will keep it where it ought to be.

EARL SMITH

Boat

Here's a boat for Earl
To go sailing on the lake,
But don't take too many girls
For it is liable to break.

LESTER SOUZA

Bottle of Slickum

This little bottle of slickum
Will keep Lester's hair in place,
Be careful when you use it
Not to get it on your face.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

DOROTHY STILES

Compact

To Dot Stiles who's always powdering her nose
To keep it from becoming the color of a rose,
I'm going to use a little tact
And give to her this compact.

ALMIRA SULLIVAN

Penny

Because Almira's always broke
We're giving her this penny,
Cause we know it is no joke
Never to have any.

BEATRICE SYLVIA

Trumpet

Beatrice has been so very quiet
All through her school year,
If she'll only blow this trumpet
We'll know that she is near.

JOANNA SYPEK

Garters

When Joanna goes marching up the aisle
All dressed up in the latest style,
She will have to wear something blue
So these garters we will give to you.

MARGARET TATRO

Massage Cream

Margaret must be on a diet
She is so very thin,
If she uses this massage cream
She'll never have a double chin.

EVELYN TERAN

Henna Rinse

When you are old
And your hair is turning gray,
Just use this package of henna
To keep it as it is today.

CHARLES TIFFANY

Gun

All the boys go out at night
Charlie is no exception,
So I bought this gun, just for fun
In case he needed protection.

ROBERT TREADUP

Megaphone

If anything ever happens to Rudy
What will the women do,
You'd better keep on singing, Bob
And then they'll all come running to you.

KENNETH TIRRELL

Whip

To one who has been a manager
And who is going to manage fleas,
Why, here's the nicest whip we found
Just train them as you please.

ALTON TRIPP

Gun

Alton was a crack shot
And also captain of the rifle team,
This gun we give to him
To show him our esteem.

WALTER TRIPP

Note Book

From a nice young employer
Walter takes dictation,
He'll need this ruled book
To keep his notes in rotation.

AMY WALTON

Automobile

I know that Amy craves a car
To take her friends out riding,
This one has very good brakes
So that they won't all go sliding.

LOUIS WINETZKY

Sheet of Music

This sheet of music
Will keep Louis in tune,
It's nice to know how to sing
When you take your girl out to spoon.

HERBERT WORDELL

Aeroplane

We all know Herbert has a Ford
In which he likes to race,
If he should ever tire of it
May this aeroplane take its place.

ALICE ZIEDLIS

Alarm Clock

If with Pratt you ever have a date
You can rest assured she'll always be late,
This little clock ought to be fine
To help her to always be ready on time.

Giftory of the Giftorians

EDNA DELANEY

Basketball

Altho' you're just a little mite
In basketball you do excel,
So a brand new basketball
Will help you play it well.

RUTH GIDLEY

Megaphone

To Ruth we give a megaphone
For when she's on her tours,
She can explain the wonderous sights
Of Ireland's pretty moors.

ELIZABETH PECK

Sheet of Music

Piano is Libby's pastime
She plays real well, no doubt,
One more sheet of music
Will always help her out.

FRANK SMALL

Slickum

To you we give this Slickum
So curley is your hair;
T'will help you keep it back,
And make you very fair.

Prophecy of the Class of June, 1931

College Classical Course

By ETHEL BIRTWISTLE

LILLIAN BOSSE'

Lillian owns a candy store
She carries the best of stock,
Everything she sells is delicious
But her prices will give you a shock.

DOMINCO CARDULLO

Cardullo, a hunter has turned out to be
But his hunting requires little force,
For he's hunting for little white golf balls
On the greatest miniature course.

DOROTHY DEAN

"Dot" is making "Talkies"
She's also making a hit,
Her latest product advertises
A product they call "Flit".

DAVID DRATCH

David is a well known doctor
He knows his latin terms,
For he's concocting some new medicine
To kill all the horrid germs.

ELSIE GARRITY

When someone mentions history
Then that is Elsie's cue,
For Elsie now is editing
The "Weekly News Review".

RUTH GIDLEY

Ruth is working for the Blue Line
A tourist guide is she,
Taking tourists through Ireland
She's as happy as can be.

BELLA GONET

Bella wrote the class history
That gave her an idea I guess,
For now she writes deep mystery
And makes millions "more or less".

MARGARET HOWES

A diver is Margaret, they say
She does jack-knives and swans to perfection,
You'll see her some day, not far from now
Champion of the Eastern section.

VIRGINIA KILBURN

Virginia, our valedictorian
Is running true to form,
As dean of a woman's college
She's taking the world by storm.

YSOLA LANTHIER

If you wish to know all about
Every electrical appliance,
Just get in touch with Ysola
She's teaching domestic science.

AMANDA MACY

Amanda is a busy person
Her duties never cease,
'Cause she is head detective
For the New York police.

SAM MANELIS

Sam has become an engineer.
What sort? I hear you ask.
Building bridges, you'll admit,
Is not an easy task.

WILLIAM MARGESON

You'll find our Bill in vaudeville
From town to town he does dart,
He does his turn with a right good will—
Our Senior Show gave him his start.

MARCUS MAZEL

Marcus is still arguing
His fame has spread quite far,
His fondest hope was realized
When he was admitted to the bar.

MARY McDEVITT

In swimming our Mary, they say, is a shark
She is the best we have ever seen,
And now we see her with cups galore
Winning fame on the Olympic Team.

ELIZABETH NORLANDER

At sonnets, our Ibby sure knew her stuff
She had the best sense of rhyme,
So now she's a well known poetess
Writing poems for only a dime.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

ROSE O'BRIEN

Rose is attending an auto school
Learning repairing at last,
She'll learn to repair her car by rule
Freezing and punctures will be of the past.

MARY PARENDELIS

I never thought I'd see her there
I must be in a trance,
But no! It IS our Mary
U. S. Ambassador to France.

WALTHAM PORTNOY

Waltham is in politics
His office, you'll agree,
As Senator in Congress
Is fine for old N. B.

AILEEN SANDERS

A kindergarten teacher is Aileen
And all her pupils adore her,
She is always sweet and kind to them
And they never, never bore her.

MARY SHERMAN

Mary couldn't decide
What she wanted to do the most,
So now she's driving a truck around
For the U. S. Parcel Post.

ROXANNE SHERMAN

Now I come to "Rocky" Sherman
What she's doing you'll never guess,
She's teaching MATHEMATICS
In a little school out west.

BRONISLAW SIWIK

Siwik's a boxer of far renown
He's climbed the ladder to fame,
But as yet he hasn't found a soul
With whom to share his name.

JENNIE SOBOSKI

Her former ambitions were o'ercome
Time proved an avalanche,
Now Jennie's a promising cow-girl
Out on a Wyoming ranch.

STANLEY ZIEMBIK

Stanley is managing a fine hotel
Charm and courtesy he does not lack;
This is the proof of his ability—
His patrons always come back.

REUBEN STUPNITSKY

Reuben, Reuben, I've been thinking
What a grand coach you will be,
You will keep the fans all blinking
When your teams' big scores they see.

MARY SULLIVAN

Molly had an eye for art
Was apt, as everyone knows,
Now she is one of the judges
At some of the best dog shows.

RICHARD SYLVIA

Our Richard is living in a hut
On one of the South Sea Isles,
He's doing his best to get a rest
From the R. O. sponsors' wiles.

ELIZABETH TABER

Betty's vocation is camp life
As a director she is a wow,
She swims and dives and rides all the time
She sure knows her stuff, I'll vow.

EARL TAYLOR

Earl has taken to writing
As a reporter, he's making much dough,
You'll read his writings in all the papers,
He's quite the little "so-and-so".

JACOB WINETSKY

A train announcer is Jacob—"some bird"
His voice is his fortune, they say,
We hope he is better than some we've heard
If he is, he'll sure earn his pay.

ELIZABETH WOOD

We see Elizabeth far, far away
In a very, very strange land,
She's teaching little Chinks how to read and write
And she's organized quite a band.

WANDA ZAJAC

Wanda is a house-wife
She cleans and sews and bakes,
Her husband and her children thrive
On the food that Wanda makes.

Scientific Course

By ALVAR SUNDIN

FERN BAILEY

Fern is now dealing in oils
No, it's not in stocks,
All day she stands on the corner
Selling slikum to slick the clocks.

FRANCES BLECHA

Down in Nicaragua, they're digging a canal,
There "Red" is starting his career
Filling trucks with dirt and stone,
He's a steam shovel engineer.

EDWIN CARDIN

Eddie was always so quiet in school,
You'll be surprised to what he's come,
When the Marine Band plays a tune,
He's the guy that beats the drum.

RICHARD CARRERA

Dick is now a "big shot"
Over in the land of spaghetti,
It's "The Honorable Richard Carrera" now
He's assistant to Mussolini.

HERBERT CATLOW

Herbert is an artist
They say he's doing fine,
But every time I see him
He never has a dime.

JOSEPH DELCOURT

Down on one of the South Sea Isles,
Where the savages dance and sing;
Joseph lives in the midst of them all,
Of the tribe he is the king.

GARDNER DREW

In high school, Gardy
Was always quite a shiek,
But now he owns a side show
And exhibits all the freaks.

JOHN DUFF

When your coal is getting low,
And you don't know what to do;
Just call up Johnny on the phone,
And he'll send a truck to you.

CARLTON FERNS

Carlton is an artist
His works are all unknown;
He doesn't paint small things,
With red paint he paints the town.

ALBERT FURNANS

In the high jump
Al is mighty hard to beat,
Last year at the Olympic games
With the best he did compete.

RUSSELL GIFFORD

Extra! Extra! get your extra,
It's the greatest paper in the land,
"Rusty" is the star reporter,
And his salary is five "grand".

BENJAMIN GORDON

A very famous specialist
Ben has got to be,
He has a great big practice,
And he charges a great big fee.

DONALD GRAY

Donald works in a restaurant
He is slinging the hash,
He didn't become famous,
But he's pulling in the cash.

LEWIS GREGSON

Sanford and Kelly opens its doors at nine,
But Louie is never there on time,
He just cares how the money's spent;
How come? Why he's the president.

JAMES GURLL

What's all the noise on the beach?
Why aren't they all in swimmin'?
Oh, it's only Jimmy in his Life Guard's suit
Surrounded by all the women!

EDWARD HOWARTH

Eddie's now in Russia,
With a red flag in his hand,
He's a big Bolsheviki
And the boss of all the land.

WILLIAM HOWLAND

Bill is now a farmer
At it he's gained great fame,
And in all Acushnet
There is no greater name.

ANZELM KURGAN

Anzelm's a sailor now,
His life is gay and free,
He has two girls in every port
From Boston to Miami.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

JAMES LEARY

Well look who's here, this red headed chap
Is now residing in the zoo,
Don't take me wrong, he's in no cage
He only shows the people through.

MERVIN LEEN

Mervin, in his High School days
A basketball did toss,
Now he's a politician
Of the country he's the boss.

MILTON LEVY

Milt is a husky brute,
You surely will admit,
He's wrestling the "Strangler" tonight
To see him costs six "bits".

DAVID McVEY

Dave is still in old New Bedford,
He's selling bales of cotton,
How much money does he make?
So much that I've forgotten.

NORMAN MAHEU

Norman's surrounded by animals
No, he runs no zoo.
He runs the Animal Rescue League
He'll give a dog to you.

CHARLES MARCHAL

Charlie's now a prosperous druggist
He sells furniture and rugs;
In fact he sells everything
Everything but drugs.

THOMAS MOSES

Thomas sells fruit from a wagon
And he sure does sell it fast,
You hear him yelling down the street
And then he rattles past.

EDWARD MURPHY

Eddie was an aviator
For him it was too tame,
So now he's down in Africa,
He's learning to hunt big game.

EDMUND OTIS

When the Red Sox stage a come-back
Pete will be at third sack,
He's the hero of the game
'Side of him, the rest look tame.

JOHN PAQUIN

Johnny's happy now,
He's working in the zoo,
He feeds bananas to the apes
And then he eats a few.

EDMUND PERRY

Wherever Eddie used to be
He always kept things "popping",
He's a hard-boiled Army Colonel now,
And he keeps the privates hopping.

LOUIS PILDIS

Be sure to go to Louie's shop
When your hair and beard need trimming,
Louie knows all the latest jokes,
At them you can't help grinning.

MILTON REX

In High School everyone thought
That Milton was a likely cad,
You'll see him now in the magazines,
He poses for a B. V. D. ad.

FRED RUSEK

We never knew where Freddie was
He never made a sound,
He owns a fleet of taxis now
All he does is ride around.

KENNETH RUSSELL

Ken is an aviator of great fame,
He makes flights that are scientific,
He's flown over both the poles,
And the Atlantic and Pacific.

EVERETT SANDERSON

All over the billboards
We see a familiar name,
Everett's a movie star now,
And a lover of great fame.

GARRETT SCHULER

Garrett Schuler has leaped to fame,
On the front pages we find his name;
Pretty soon his watch he'll hock,
For his Broadway night club bears a padlock.

GORDON SCOWCROFT

Here's H. Gordon Scowcroft
That smart little guy,
He's a plumber now,
And his prices are high.

ALBERT SHILL

Albert Shill is a salesman now,
At selling things he's a wow,
Fans in the Arctic, fur coats in Brazil
Just how he does it is a mystery still.

ALBERT SHUSTER

Al's spending his life in college,
Of studying he is bored,
He wears a racoon coat, plays a sax
And drives a collegiate Ford.

MITCHEL SIEMINSKI

On track and gridiron, Siemy shines
In the class room he is no duller,
As a chemist a fortune he'll amass
That will rival Rockefeller's.

EDWARD SIMPSON

If you should go to Roxy's Theatre
To see a movie or a play,
Eddie is chief usher there,
He'll greet you with "Sir, right this way".

FRANK SMALL

When to some night club in New York
You should sometime stray,
You'll have no trouble getting in
For Frank's doorman at Villa Vallee.

WILLIAM SULLIVAN

Bill is getting two dollars a word
And he's made a fortune immense,
To make money he fills up his books,
With words that have no sense.

HERBERT SMITH

Herbert's down in South America
Leading rebel hordes,
He takes his staff around with him
In one of his orange Fords.

GEORGE SPILIOTIS

George has got a reputation
As a tough old traffic cop,
He's a terror to the drivers,
When he blows his whistle, you'd better stop.

EARLE SPOONER

The years roll by, now let us see
What to this friend befell,
He's a train dispatcher now,
And no one knows just what he yells.

Normal Course

By MARJORIE SIMAS

PHYLLIS BROMLEY

Phyllis is a business woman
Has made her millions many times;
Needless to say, she's generous,
Gives dollars instead of dimes.

MARGARET CAYTON

Margaret will be a teacher
In a little town out west,
She'll quiet her tots by singing to them
And giving them many tests.

FRANK CLEVELAND

Frank is a bashful professor,
In physiology he does specialize
About the bones and the nervous system,
And he does think he is quite wise.

DORIS COHEN

A mannequin in a Paris shop,
We wonder who she is?
We look again and know it is
Our Doris in a fashion shop.

MARY COSTA

Mary is a jolly girl
Who has no special ambition.
I think that in a few years more
We'll see her as a dietitian.

JOSEPHINE DABROWSKA

A teacher of gymnasium
Is our school-mate "Jo",
She always has the pep and snap
That makes us move our bones.

THALIA FELTON

Thalia is a teacher
Of Bible stories true,
The children like to hear her tell
Of all these stories new.

LOUVA GODDU

Patience, hope, and love
All these to give her pupils,
When our dear Louva teaches school
In a country school house.

ROSE GLYNN

A librarian is Rose Glynn
In a far-off city.
She'll give you books on anything
And help you to become witty.

MYRTLE HEYLIGER

Myrtle is to go in training
To be a nurse so brave,
She will be liked by all her patients
In her attempts to help them and save.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

LILLIAN KIVOWITZ

Lillian's clothes were always very chic,
She has set many a style;
And now she has a junk shop
Where clothes are heaped in a pile.

JOHN KOZIOL

Some day in New York we'll see
Painted pictures of the sea,
We all will be proud to exclaim:
"That is John Koziol of New Bedford fame".

EDMUND MATTOS

A corner in the book store
We find all occupied
By poems written by Edmund Mattos
Which make everyone laugh instead of cry.

MARY McINTYRE

Mary started as a clerk
In a fashionable down-town store,
But now you see her at her work
With "McIntyre" over the door.

ELNA NELSON

As a sweet and helpful nurse,
Elna has become quite famous.
She is so very kind and sweet
To all her little patients.

ESTHER PAINE

A quiet girl is Esther,
We have heard her not,
But some day she will come forth,
And people will know she is on earth.

ELIZABETH PECK

On the screen we'll see our Libby,
Making us all laugh so silly
With her comic actions and witty sayings
She'll be a success in all her playing.

ELIZABETH WHITE

While walking up Fifth Avenue,
We see a snappy shop
And learn that this is "Betty's Shop"
Where clothes she designs.

ALMY PHILLIPS

Almy will be a nurse
In some large hospital.
She will make her patients happy
By her sweet and happy smile.

DOROTHY ROSE

Off in the land of the wild
We shall see Dot with a smile,
Because she has become a magician
In turning savages into Christians.

LOUISE STILES

Louise is a secretary,
She works for the Mayor, you see,
And every time you see her
She's as busy as a bee.

ELSIE SYLVIA

Elsie is a school ma'am,
Teaching away out West,
Making all her pupils giggle,
By the stories she likes best.

THELMA SYLVIA

Waves, curls, crimps,
All these have become Thelma's habit,
While working in her beauty shop
Among the high class aristocrats.

SIMONE TURGEON

Up, down, up, down,
In work and in play,
This is the phrase Simone will say
In her gym until sun-down.

VIVIAN WEST

A demure, sweet, and happy wife
Our Vivian's going to be
And can't you guess the lucky man?
His name begins with "E".

Commercial Course

By JANE DAVIDSON

JEANETTE ADELSON

Jeanette Adelson sings in Opera!
Yes, her singing is divine!
If you wish to hear the lady,
Seats are selling for a dime.

ADA ALBIN

Ada Albin, to the surprise of all,
Has published her first book.
Happily for her, it sells quite well;
It teaches how to cook.

CLASS OF JUNE, NINETEEN THIRTY-ONE

EILEEN ALLISON

Miss Allison—so they call her now—
Presides in a boarding school.
No pranks escape her eagle eye,
No culprit breaks her rule.

SARAH ALVES

Sarah Alves reports for Vogue,
Her shopping lists are much admired.
If you've a million dollars to spend,
She'll see that you are well attired.

MARY ANDRE

Mary is a commercial artist
Her posters win great fame,
In the corner, in tiny letters
She modestly signs her name.

KULA ANNIS

In a cute little inn, far back from the road,
Kula Annis is doing her bit.
The flowers attract you, the food is quite good
And the service will sure make a hit.

ROSE BERCHE

Rose Berche has become a milliner,
Her hats are very chic.
But the prices that she charges you,
Sure make you feel quite sick.

BLANCHE BIRON

Blanche Biron is a society dame,
The leader of "who's who".
But to old friends she is the same,
And will ever be true.

ADRIENNE BLANCHETTE

Adrienne Blanchette is the secretary
Of the Governor of State.
She lives up to her reputation
And never reaches the office late.

ESTELLE BUCKLEY

Estelle Buckley is a boarding house mistress,
And one of great renown.
The excellence of her pies and cakes
Is known all over town.

CHARLES CHACE

Hist! the Secret Service listens,
Charles Chace is in charge.
His hardest job is catching bombers
So many are at large.

GEORGE CHADWICK

George Chadwick, on a western ranch,
Leads a life packed full of thrills.
He punches cows to make enough
To pay his courting bills.

ARNOLD COHEN

The modern high school principal
Has a new rule in force.
If a pupil takes home a single book
He's dismissed at once, of course.

MARIA COSTA

Maria has invented a great many things
That have caused a lot of talk;
But her latest discovery of science is
How to eat soup with a fork.

LOUIS CRAPO

When folks are broke as the rent falls due,
To the National bank they go.
Louis Crapo is the cashier there
And he comes across with the dough.

RUSSELL CRAWFORD

Parson Crawford in the pulpit,
Behold his quiet flock.
For though Russell makes fiery sermons,
There's truth in every talk.

EDWARD DARGIS

Edward Dargis is an astrologist,
And has found out a lot about Mars.
The very next thing he's going to do
Is try to get there on the cars.

ROGER d'AVIGNON

Roger d'Avignon went with the circus
And became a side-show fake.
When he isn't taming the lioness,
He's charming the lady snake.

EDNA DELANEY

Edna Delaney has reached at last
Her ambitions highest point.
She can tie herself up in a knot
Without getting out of joint.

VIOLET DEXTRAZE

Lady Marriage has taken her toll
From the members of our class.
Violet fell the heaviest,
Oh! that such should come to pass.

LILLIAN DOBECK

If you want to clear up your love affairs,
Without it costing you a cent.
Just send a letter to Lillian
For advice on "Love and Sentiment".

WALTER DREHER, JR.

A scientific surgeon is Walter
His patients make no kicks;
For a dead man can tell no tales
After Buster removes the appendix.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

ANNA DUFRESNE

In her beauty shop down the street
Many a switch she has made;
And Anna will also dye your hair
To any pastel shade.

RUTH EASTON

Ruth Easton now treats the sick,
Her course was academic.
They shouldn't let such nice folks nurse,
We fear an epidemic.

ABRAHAM FELD

If springtime demands a tonic,
Or winter brings a chill;
To Feld the druggist you should go
He'll surely fill the bill.

MARGARET FERGUSON

In a school in old New Bedford,
Margaret teaches "gym".
And when she returns from her labor,
She takes her turn at teaching him.

JANET FITCH

An aviatrix is our Janet,
She's flown nearly up to the moon.
And as for Carnegie Medals,
She'll get her thirteenth soon.

GUY FREDERICK

Guy Frederick owns a railroad now,
With all its pretty trains.
He drives around in Packards
And lowly Fords disdains.

YVONNE GARDNER

Quite content is Yvonne Gardner
With her humble little life.
She ran a delicatessen store
Until she became "his" wife.

MAURICE GOLDBERG

Maurice Goldberg is now a barber
Especially for the ladies fair.
He scorns to mow the young men's faces,
He simply bobs the nice girls' hair.

IRENE GOLDTHORPE

Irene works in a laundry
There her pin money she earns.
Hooks and eyes she irons well
Everything else she burns.

MARY GONSALVES

Mary Gonsalves sailed on a yacht
A great discoverer was she.
She met with an accident the other day
While trying to swallow up the sea.

ETHEL GORDON

A queen is Ethel Gordon
Not in London or in Rome;
But wedding bells called Ethel
To reign in heart and home.

IMELDA GOULET

Imelda is a medical girl
And a very good one too.
If you should be at death's door,
She'll gladly pull you through.

HELEN GRANT

A rising lawyer is our Helen,
'Tis said she wins every case.
The jury cannot do otherwise
When they look at her demure face.

MARY HARDEN

Mary Harden has risen to power and fame
In the Municipal Building here.
She's Office Manager of all the girls
And makes five thousand a year.

GEORGETTE HARPIN

Elizabeth Harpin went to France,
And made good at designing.
All any clothes need to make a hit
Is her name in the lining.

PATRICIA JAMES

Fortune smiled on Patricia James
She's a well known movie star.
When her picture appears at any theatre
The people flock from near and far.

FRANCES JEGLINSKI

Frances runs a bakery
With cookies, cake and pie.
When you gaze into her window,
You have to go in and buy.

JOHN B. JOHN

John was a scientist
Who scoffed at Lady Fate.
He fooled around with T. N. T.
The rest is too sad to relate.

FLORENCE KEY

Florence is a canvasser
She goes from door to door.
And though her sales aren't very large
She hopes there'll soon be more.

JOSEPH KOSINSKI

A sleuth is Joseph Kosinski
He's always on your trail.
When he's hired for a case
You can be sure he will not fail.

CLASS OF JUNE, NINETEEN THIRTY-ONE

GRAYCE LAMOND

In Boston in an office
Grayce slaves the whole long day;
Then at a restaurant and dance
She whiles the night away.

KATHLEEN LAWLESS

An artist is our Kathleen
She lives down in Greenwich way.
She earns her bread and butter
By painting every day.

DOROTHY LAWTON

Dorothy is a secretary
She surely has a snap.
Between each letter she has to type
She takes a little nap.

ROWEENA LEEN

Roweena runs a candy shop
And oh! what dainty sweets.
The quality is high and the prices low
So all the other stores she beats.

CECILE LEMAIRE

The best shoes and the prettiest
Are sold at Cecile's shop.
So when you think you need a pair
At Lemaire's you really should stop.

FRED LERNER

When you want a new auto,
And you don't know where to go.
Ask our old friend Lerner
The best to you he'll show.

THEODORE LINDGREN

Listen to the "hot dog" vender
His voice is low and dead.
It seems to bring to us once more
The days we spend with good old Ted.

RUBY LUSCOMB

Ruby teaches shorthand
In her own private school.
She makes her pupils toe the mark
And they must obey her rule.

ADOLPH MACHADO

Adolph is the captain
Of a transatlantic liner.
If you ask him how he likes his work,
He'll tell you there's nothing finer.

HENRY MARTINS

A business man is Henry
He worries through the day;
Thinking why and where and when
And how to spend his pay.

LUCY PIGNONE

A farmerette is our Lucy
And she's envied all around.
She only has to smile
To make things come out of the ground.

STEPHANIE PLAZA

If you should ever earn a dime
And don't know where to get your money's
Just look up Stephanie Plaza worth;
She's working for Woolworth.

ELIZABETH RAULINS

Elizabeth is a dairy maid
On a big farm out in the West;
She feeds the hens and chickens
The others do the rest.

MILDRED REED

Mildred could take dictation
At a flying rate of speed.
Now she's in an office
Helping out where there is need.

FRANCES REICH

Frances travels far and wide
In distant lands she lives;
But oft she returns to us back here
And travel talks she gives.

BERT ST. GERMAIN

I never thought that Bert
Would become a desperado;
But his name fills up the headlines
As gunman in Chicago.

MARY SCULLY

Mary resides in wicked Paree
And its very hard she works;
Creating the very latest styles
And changing the length of skirts.

NETTIE SHIEF

Nettie is in the hospital
Training to be a nurse;
A week after being in her care
The patients ride in a hearse.

EARL SMITH

Earl is now a night-watchman
In a large shoe factory in Lynn;
He punches the clocks every hour,
And sees that no burglars get in.

LESTER SOUZA

Lester will be a business man
Obstinate, cranky and cross,
Whoever works in his office
Will have a terrible boss.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

DOROTHY STILES

Dorothy was a very fast typist
She could take dictation too;
So now she's in an office
And she has plenty to do.

ALMIRA SULLIVAN

Almira was always very quiet
Quieter than a mouse;
Suddenly she made a great change
And is now speaker of the House.

BEATRICE SYLVIA

Beatrice is a teacher
Out in a country school.
She is very, very strict
And makes all the "kids" obey the rule.

Joanna with her flashing smile
And pretty hair of gold;
Is now a famous movie star
Beloved by young and old.

MARGARET TATRO

In a far off Spanish castle
Our Margaret reigns supreme;
She is a happy, wealthy senora
And her life is a lovely dream.

EVELYN TERAN

Evelyn was in a vaudeville show
And there displayed her art;
Ziegfield picked her from a score
To play a leading part.

CHARLES TIFFANY

Charlie is making fish nets
And he doesn't worry about the weather
He just makes a whole lot of holes
And ties them all together.

KENNETH TIRRELL

Kenneth is an engineer
He's building bridges and such,
He speaks a thousand languages
So he never gets in "Dutch".

ROBERT TREADUP

When Rudy Vallee starts to sing
He should be careful lest
Everyone who hears our Bob
Will say he sings the best.

ALTON TRIPP

Alton was an officer
In the R. O. T. C.
When he goes to West Point
A lovely plebe he'll be.

WALTER TRIPP, JR.

Walter, in the distant future
Will be a navigator.
If he doesn't sail the ocean deep,
He'll steer a river freighter.

AMY WALTON

Amy is surrounded with children
She loves them one and all;
Her occupation is teaching kindergarten
To kiddies who are quite small.

LOUIS WINETZKY

All officers are grouchy,
All state police are flops,
Louis will be an exception,
A grinning traffic top.

HERBERT WORDELL

Herbert loves a life of ease
With lots of time to fritter;
That is why it is prophesized
He'll be a flagpole sitter.

ALICE ZIEDLIS

Alice, still slim and very sweet
Is renowned both near and far;
Even though she didn't play in our band
She's a famous radio star.

Prophecy of the Prophets

ETHEL BIRTWISTLE

Ethel's a famous dancer now
As the girl with the thousand wiggles,
She's known all the country over
But she still has her giggles.

JANE DAVIDSON

Jane will be a stenographer
For some big Broadway boss,
She'll win his heart by her sweet ways
And make the other girls feel at a loss.

MARJORIE SIMAS

Marjorie will be an actress
Of fame—both near and far,
Many a Broadway theatre
Will advertise this great star.

ALVAR SUNDIN

Red is a cadet at West Point
With polished boots and gun,
The girls admire him on parade,
So he thinks that soldiering is fun.

The Class Alphabet

- A—is for Amanda, So stately and tall
Should she stub her toe, she'd have a long way to fall.
- B—is for Blanche, the most prominent girl,
She enveloped activities, all in a whirl.
- C—is for Charlie who grins all the time,
How much would he owe, if each grin cost a dime?
- D—is for Dot, a clever young miss,
Stranger than fiction, more truth lies in this.
- E—is for Ethel, whose giggling's outrageous,
She is hereby informed that it's also contagious.
- F—is for Francis, our carrot-top true,
Red we are wishing good luck for you.
- G—is for Gardy, who in crushes excels,
But never in books very deeply delves.
- H—is for Howarth, undignified Eddie,
Who for a good time, always is ready.
- I—is for Ibby, who is a good friend,
She will stand by you right to the end.
- J—is for John, our class president,
Who of holding this office will never repent.
- K—is for Kathleen, known better as Kay,
Her bright smile has given her a charming way.
- L—is for Libby, so quiet and meek,
She's going into training—her fortune to seek.
- M—is for Mary, thought clumsy by some,
Who always is ready to enjoy the fun.
- N—is for Nelson, she leads in the yells,
And also in basketball, Elna excels.
- O—is for O'Brien, a quiet young lass,
Voted the most fashionable girl in the class.
- P—is for Perry, the envy of beaux,
He sets all the fashions wherever he goes.
- Q—is for quizzes, they trouble our minds,
And turn us all into grim, greasy grinds.
- R—is for Rocky, whose hair was once long,
But she cut it 'cause it hampered her when she played ping-pong.
- S—is for Siemi, so smart yet so quiet,
He shines at football and who can deny it.
- T—is for Treadup, who someday is liable,
The crooning Rudy Vallee to rival.
- U—is for US the class of June '31,
Who by our High School, our duty have done.
- V—is for Virginia, so versatile and neat,
As valedictorian, she cannot be beat.
- W—is for Whitmarsh, he sponsors our class,
Who as a history teacher, no one can surpass.
- X—is for Xams, we hate them, and how!
It is certain that without them, life would be a wow.
- Y—is for Ysola, a music-lover is she,
We hope that at Pembroke she'll be as happy as she can be.
- Z—is for Zajac, our artist so fair,
Wanda never is seen without a wave in her hair.
